Volunteer Agreement and Certification of Information

Believing that the Charitable Child Fund has need of my services as a volunteer, I agree:

To hold as absolutely confidential all information, which I may obtain directly or indirectly concerning children, families or personnel, and will not seek, confidential information in regard to anyone affiliated with the Charitable Child Fund.

That my services are donated to the Charitable Child Fund, without contemplation of compensation or future employment, and given with humanitarian or charitable reasons.

To commit to 100 hours and at least six (6) months of service, the first month to be mutually probationary.

I certify that the answers given by me to the foregoing questions and statements are true, correct, and without omissions. I authorize Charitable Child Fund to investigate and/ or verify the foregoing information and any other information, which might assist them in determining my qualifications for volunteering. I release the Charitable Child Fund and my former employers, and all others from any liability from damage, which may result from such investigation, if, upon investigation, anything contained in this application is found to be untrue. I further agree to conform to the rules and regulations of this facility. I understand that my volunteer status with the Charitable Child Fund can be terminated at any time for failure to comply with the policies, rules, and regulations of the Foundation including those of the volunteer department; for absences without notification; for reasons of unsatisfactory attitude, work or appearance; and for any other circumstances which, in the judgment of the Foundation, would make my continued service as a volunteer contrary to the best interests of the Foundation. I also understand that on one has any authority to enter into any agreement for employment for any specified period of time or to make any agreement contrary to the foregoing, except for a written employment agreement signed by an administrative representative of this facility.

Background Investigation Authorization: Information Sheets

California Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act

COMPLETE TEXT OF SECTION OF THE LAW CONTAINING THE REQUIRED NOTICE TO CONSUMERS

The section of the California Civil Code, which are your rights under the Amended Act, are set out below in full.

§ 1786.22.

- (a) An investigative consumer-reporting agency shall supply files and information required under Section 1786.10 during normal business hours and on reasonable notice.
- (b) Files maintained on a consumer shall be made available for the consumer's visual inspection, as follows:
- (1) In person, if he/she appears in person and furnishes proper identification. A copy of his/her file shall also be available to the consumer for a fee not to exceed the actual costs of duplication services provided.
 - (2) By certified mail, if he/she makes a written request, with proper identification, for copies to be sent to a specified addressee. Investigative consumer reporting agencies complying with requests for certified mailing under this section shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the investigative consumer reporting agencies.
 - (3) A summary of all information contained in files on a consumer and required to be provided by Section 1786.10 shall be provided by telephone, if the consumer has made written request, with proper identification for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to the consumer.
- (c) The term "proper identification" as used in subdivision (b) shall mean that information generally deemed sufficient to identify a person. Such information includes documents such as a valid driver's license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. Only if the consumer is unable to reasonably identify himself with the information described above, may an investigative consumer-reporting agency require additional information concerning the consumer's employment and personal or family history in order to verify his/her identity.
- (d) The investigative consumer reporting agency shall provide trained personnel to explain to the consumer any information furnished him/her pursuant to Section 1786.10
- (e) The investigative consumer-reporting agency shall provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on a consumer. This written explanation shall be distributed whenever a file is provided to a consumer for visual inspection as required under Section 1786.22.
- (f) The consumer shall be permitted to be accompanied by one other person of his choosing, who shall furnish reasonable identification. An investigative consumer-reporting agency may require the consumer to furnish a written statement granting permission to the consumer-reporting agency to discuss the consumer's files in such person's presence.
- (g) You have the right to know the names of the person and companies who have received a report about you in the last three (3) years. You may request their addresses and telephone numbers.
- (h) The agency must describe these rights to you in English and Spanish.
